

Chang Jing

Associate professor

Department of Finance, School of Economics, Qingdao University

Ph.D. in Management, Major in Accounting, Corporate Finance

Postdoctoral Fellow in Economics, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences

Email: changjing929@163.com

Research interests: corporate finance, strategic finance, private equity funds and venture capital, finance and taxation informatization, rural economy, etc.

Detailed introduction

The first batch of Qingdao University Youth Outstanding Talents Project, successively won the title of "Most Beautiful Teacher" of Qingdao University, school-level excellent class teacher, excellent tutor of college student innovation and entrepreneurship competition, won the first "Jiezheng" Teacher Contribution Award of Qingdao University, published more than 20 papers, 4 monographs, successively won the first prize of Shandong Province Tax Research Outstanding Achievements, the first prize of Shandong Provincial Human Resources and Social Security Department Excellent Research Achievements, the second prize of Qingdao Financial Innovation Research Award and many other awards, and undertook the special financial project of Shandong Province and the key project of Qingdao "Double Hundred Research". She has presided over the key projects of the national financial reform pilot zone, and presided over more than ten scientific research projects such as social science in Shandong Province, the development plan of the fund industry in Qingdao and key topics in annual research.

Social Appointments

She has served as an independent director of Qingdao Kejie Intelligent Co., Ltd. (Science and Technology Innovation Board), an independent director of Qingdao Qinghe Co., Ltd., a government procurement expert in Shandong Province, an external director of Qingdao State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission and the Finance Bureau, and the first batch of mentors for the construction of Qingdao Entrepreneurial City.